Pete's CD Review

The big news for Oldies fans is the release of "Cameo Parkway" on CD. For years, getting anything on the original master tapes was impossible. Now, following the excellent box set and the first wave of greatest hits collections: more good news! CD's containing two LP's on one disc. All original including:

- ** Chubby Checker: "It's pony time/Let's twist again"
- ** The Orlons: "Wah-Wahtusi/South Street"
- ** Terry Knight and the Pack: Self Titled and "Reflections"

--And believe it or not, Clint Eastwood from 1962.

The biggest news and I think the best part of the releases... The Vocal group collection, which includes "Gee but I'm Lonesome" by Lee Andrew and the Hearts.."
